Sault College Hosts 3 in 1 Joint Information Session

(Sault Ste. Marie, ON November 26, 2010) Sault College will host a 3 in 1 Joint Information Session on Wednesday December 1st at 6:30pm in the Multimedia Centre. Representatives from Sault College, Algoma University and Lake Superior State University will be in attendance to provide general and program specific information and discuss the agreements, articulations and collaborations between the three schools.

“Sault Ste. Marie has a lot to offer students considering post secondary education,” says Tanya Running, Student Recruitment and Success Advisor. “There are a number of ways to combine both college diplomas and university degrees. Events such as the 3 in 1 allows our local students to make informed decisions about where and what to study in the twin Sault area.”

During the evening, students can attend up to three different sessions and explore programs and transfer agreements in Information Technology, Business, Justice Studies, Health Sciences, Community Services, Teacher Education and General Arts and Science.

Admission to this event is free and parking is available in the A-North parking lot. As the event wraps up with refreshments, there will be prizes drawn and an opportunity to meet with representatives from their respective schools. For more information contact Tanya Running at 759-2554 ext. 2723.
