What you need to be successful:

- an Aviation College Diploma or an aviation related University Degree or equivalent industry experience
- a minimum valid Class III Instructor Rating with the requirement to upgrade to Class II
- a non-Aviation related university degree will be considered an asset
- familiarity with all required subjects and Transport Canada flight test guides and CARs as they relate to Private, Commercial, Multi-Engine and Instrument training
- be in good standing with Transport Canada
- teaching experience is an asset
- strong interpersonal skills to work effectively alone or within a collaborative team environment
- excellent leadership, mentoring, presentation skills
- strong commitment to academic excellence and student success
- knowledge of a variety of software packages
- be prepared to demonstrate their flying and communication skills at the interview

This is a full-time bargaining unit position with salary commensurate with qualifications and experience.
