PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:
Students learn to demonstrate consistent ethical, legal and professional responsibility and adherence to all social work values, principles and skills. The program’s specialized curriculum incorporates social service work skills and infuses teachings and concepts from the Indigenous world view, preparing students to provide culturally relevant social service work with an increased understanding and knowledge of social issues affecting Indigenous people.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENT:
Ontario Secondary School diploma or Certificate of Education or Mature Student Status. Applicants must meet the CICE Program admission criteria, inclusive of a level of independence which precludes constant supervision. Application packages are mailed out once the online application to ontariocolleges.com has been completed by the applicant and received by the College.
