REASON FOR REFUND REQUEST

Denied Study Permit:

Upon submission of sufficient proof of Study Permit denial, including copy of original refusal, you will be considered for a refund. Fees will be refunded and returned minus:

- $400 administration fee

Unable To Attend/Withdrawal (Before Day 10 of Classes):

Ancillary fees, residence fees and health insurance fees are non-refundable. Tuition fees will be refunded and returned minus:

- $400 administration fee
- $2,100 withdrawal fee

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

- Typewritten Sault College International Student Refund Form
- Letter of Admission (LOA) from Sault College
- All Sault College fee receipts
- Unmodified Visa Refusal file from Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada
- If transferring to another school, a copy of the LOA from the College/University
- Hand-written letter of request for refund indicating reason for withdrawal, signed by the student

You will be notified via email when your refund has been provided to the Financial Services Office for processing. Once provided to our Financial Services Office, refund processing can take between 4–6 weeks, with longer processing times during peak periods (December to January, May to June, August to October).
